Get your green on and join us on this special day as we celebrate the lore of St. Patrick and the many notable figures who came from the Emerald Isle.

Take a ride in the heated comfort of our Woodlawn Conservancy Trolley and visit the final resting places of some of New York's most prominent Irish men and women including George M. Cohan, Victor Herbert, Chauncey Olcott and Geraldine Fitzgerald, just to name a few.

We will be meeting at the Jerome Avenue and Bainbridge Avenue gate at 1:45 PM and the Trolley Tour will begin at 2:00 PM

We anticipate this tour selling out quickly so tickets must be purchased in advance.

Tour is rain or shine. Ticket sales are final. Refunds will not be issued.

We are located directly across the street from the Woodlawn stop on the #4 subway.

Free parking available in Woodlawn Cemetery.

We look forward to hosting you.
